FANTASYLAND HOTEL SIGNS PRESENTATION SERVICES™ TO PROVIDE EXCLUSIVE AUDIOVISUAL SERVICES

Edmonton, Sept 16, 2004 – Fantasyland Hotel Edmonton, boasting a myriad of meeting venues, has signed a multi-year agreement with Presentation Services™, the leading provider of in-house audiovisual services to the hospitality industry. The agreement is intended to enhance Fantasyland’s onsite event technology by supplying leading-edge equipment and expertise to bring a new dimension to events and meetings at the hotel.

“Like any forward-thinking hotel, we continue to evaluate the different services we offer and with that we look at our vendor relationships. We want to assure the meeting planners that our guests and corporate clients will have a memorable and unique meeting experience,” said Peter Parmar, General Manager, The Fantasyland Hotel Edmonton. “Presentation Services has demonstrated its ability to meet the challenging needs of meeting planners and we’re excited about our relationship and what it means to the overall service at our hotel for meeting professionals and guests.”

Presentation Services will support The Fantasyland Hotel’s meetings and event business with a full range of audiovisual services and strategic sales and marketing support. Services being offered include but are not limited to video and large format projection, audio reinforcement, staging, lighting, meeting coordination and a full complement of technical and speaker support services.

According to John Voaden, Executive Vice President of Presentation Services, " We’re excited to work with Fantasyland and their customers to bring superior technology and service to Edmonton’s meeting planners. Every employee at Presentation Services is committed to delivering on our superior service promise, which has earned our company a leadership position in the industry.”
