THE WESTIN BUCKHEAD ATLANTA AND PRESENTATION SERVICES™ SIGN NEW LONG-TERM AUDIOVISUAL SERVICE AGREEMENT

ATLANTA, May 18, 2004 -- Presentation Services™, the leading provider of in-house audiovisual services to the hospitality industry, today announced that it has signed a multi-year agreement with The Westin Buckhead Atlanta to be their exclusive in-house provider of audiovisual services.

"The Westin Buckhead is poised to lead in the Atlanta market with innovative meeting and event solutions for our guests," said Tim Dahlen, General Manager, The Westin Buckhead Atlanta. "I have worked with Presentation Services in the past and they have always exceeded expectations in service delivery. Their creative solutions and service levels are an important value-add for our guests."

Presentation Services will support The Westin Buckhead's meetings and event business with a full range of innovative audiovisual services and strategic sales and marketing support. Services being offered include but are not limited to video and large format projection, audio reinforcement, staging, lighting, meeting coordination and a full complement of technical and speaker support services.

"We are committed to providing innovative products and services to our hotel and meeting planner customers," said John Voaden, Executive Vice President of Presentation Services. "By partnering The Westin Buckhead's luxury property and services with Presentation Services' record of operating, service and sales excellence, we believe they can continue to enhance their market-leading position in Atlanta."
