Showtime in New York Just Got Easier AVHQ Rental Services™ Launches New Location

February 10, 2004- New York – New York has it all when it comes to shows, events, conventions and meetings. Hotel and convention space in New York continues to lead the world in size and sophistication, and doesn't seem to be slowing down. And now, the trusted partner event planners in other cities have counted on has arrived. AVHQ Rental Services™ recently moved their local office to better serve the New York clientele previously supported from regional offices, and to partner with new clients.

Andrea Hogan, local Director of Rental Services says, "We are very excited to enhance our local service in the New York market. AVHQ Rental Services is proving itself nationwide, and with our deep knowledge of local businesses like the entertainment industry, financial services and the Javitz Center, we knew this new office would greatly benefit our customers."

Satisfied New York clients have come to depend on AVHQ to get the right gear that always works and is on time. "ESPN has partnered with AVHQ to produce events, most notably our Tailgate Party for the NFL Opener," said Jonathan C. Hopkins, Manager Special Events Marketing, ESPN. "They always go above and beyond the call of duty and provided us with top quality service. They will be a great local resource."

Clients nationwide have come to count on the services the New York office will provide. AVHQ Rental Services www.avhqrentalservices.com offers audiovisual equipment and creative audiovisual solutions to meeting and event planners. With over 30 years of experience in audiovisual rentals, AVHQ Rental Services has succeeded due to their commitment to on-time and accurate service, as well as their use of high quality and dependable equipment.

The consultative nature of AVHQ Rental Services adds yet another dimension, an invaluable technical input into the planning process. Working together with meeting planners from the outset of an event, AV professionals become the trusted partner who takes the guesswork out of AV planning. Now New York event planners will benefit from experience and professionalism in their AV partner, as well as an extensive inventory of rental equipment.
